There was a lit - tle white church in the val - ley, — all covered with i - vy vines, All the peo - ple were dressed in their

Sun - day best and sit - tin' in the pews on time. — The preach - er got read - y for his ser - mon, the in - spir - ing mes - sage of the day, — He held up his hand and

to say: —

14 15 16

then he be - gan, and this is what he had to say: —

to say: —

CHORUS

17 18

“Ev - ry - bod - y wants to go to Heav - en, — to that

19 20 21

home up in the sky, — Ev - ry - bod - y wants to see the 22 23 24

pearl - y gates — in the sweet — bye and bye.

25 26 27

Ev - ry - bod - y wants to go walk - ing on the streets all paved with 28 29 30

gold, And eat milk and hon - ey at the ta - ble of the Lord and be a

31 32 33

mem-ber of the Heav-en-ly fold — You all go to church on 34 35 36

Sun-day, and you like to lend a help-ing hand, — And 37 38 39

ev-'ry-bod-y's nice to his neigh-bor, so he can make it to the pro-mised

40 41 42

land. — Ev-'ry-bod-y wants to cross the Jor-dan — to that 43 44 45

man-sion in the sky," — I said, "Ev-'ry-bod-y wants to go to 46 47 48

rit. slower

Heav-en, But no-bod-y wants — to die!" —
