Hello Mary Lou

The image shows a musical score for the song "Hello Mary Lou" in G major, 2/4 time. It consists of two systems of music, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment line. The first system covers measures 69 to 72. The vocal line starts with "lo, Mar - y Lou." and continues with "Right from the start — I said hel -". The piano accompaniment features a rhythmic pattern of eighth and sixteenth notes. The second system covers measures 73 to 76. The vocal line continues with "lo, Mar - y Lou, — good-bye, heart!". The piano accompaniment continues with a similar rhythmic pattern, including some sustained chords in measures 75 and 76.

Performance Notes

Gene Pitney (1940-2006) was an American singer and songwriter. Among the 16 Top 40 hits he sang were Blue Angel, Only Love Can Break a Heart, Town Without Pity and (The Man Who Shot) Liberty Valance. He also wrote such tunes as Rubber Ball, recorded by Bobby Vee; He's a Rebel, by the Crystals; and the Ricky Nelson pop classic Hello Mary Lou.

David Wright, hailing from St. Louis, Mo., is well-known in the barbershop world as an arranger, composer, director, coach, singer, judge and historian. His quartet the Quadratic Equation won the Central States District championship in 1979. David has long been a key member of the St. Charles (Mo.) Ambassadors of Harmony, a three-time (and counting) winner of the Barbershop Harmony Society's (BHS) international contest. David was the primary architect of the Music category and served as its first category specialist in the BHS's contest and judging system. He is a member of the BHS's Hall of Fame and a recipient of the Joe Liles Lifetime Achievement Award. David's arrangements have been performed by many men's and women's international champions, as well as everyday groups all around the world.

An effective performance of this arrangement will feature a lively tempo and an accentuated rhythm. Within this framework, performers should feel free to experiment with lyrical inflection and variations in rhythms to give the phrases personality. This barbershop standard is bound to be a favorite of your group and your audiences.

As a final note: Questions about the contest suitability of this or any song/arrangement should be directed to the judging community and measured against current contest guidelines. Ask before you sing.
