Baritone Bass

I've got a spe - cial prob - lem with my girl friend Mag - gie:

pri - va - cy is ver - y hard to get. I've tried and tried to find some way to get her all a - lone, But

I've had no suc - cess tried at all, — has much to my re - gret!
(Noth - ing that I've tried to do has quite suc - ceed - ed yet!)

Chorus:

She brings her (1) fa - ther, her moth - er, her sis - ter and her broth - er, Oh I
(2) fa - ther, her moth - er, her sis - ter and her broth - er, Oh I

1.

Verse:

49 50 51 52

Mag - gie dear just won't go out a - lone,

53 54 55 56

Seems that she must have a chap - er - one. When

57 58 59 60

we go out, no mat - ter where we're bound, There is

1. Cont'd

61 al - ways some - bod - y 62 63 64 all a - round. She brings her a - round, a - round.

2.

65 lone! 66 I bought a 67 road - ster, two seat - ed, 68 I

69 e - ven had it heat - ed 70 so that I could see 71 Mag - gie a - 72

73 lone. 74 While we were 75 rid - ing and 76 kiss - ing, the

77 en - gine start - ed 78 miss - ing and 79 we were a 80 long way from

6

81 home; I got right out then, as

82 83 84

85 fast as I could, Found what was wrong, for

86 87 88

89 when I raised the hood, There was her fa - ther, her moth - er, her

90 91 92

93 sis - ter and her broth - er, Oh I nev - er see Mag - gie

94 95 96 a - lone.

97 all a - lone, I nev - er see Mag - gie a - lone!
