

IN THE EVENING BY THE MOONLIGHT

1880

JAMES BLAND (1845-1911)
© 1988 SPEBSQSA, Inc.

Modified 04/07/2016 for
South County Sound Chorus

The musical score is presented in four systems, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment line. The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is common time (C). The lyrics are: "In the eve-ning by the moon-light you could hear the young folk sing-in' In the eve-ning by the moon-light you could hear those ban-jos ring-in' How the old folks would en-joy it, they would sit all night and lis-'n As we sang in the eve-ning by the moon-light." The score includes performance markings: circled words indicate "HOLD" (e.g., "by", "moon-light", "hear", "en-joy", "it", "all", "night", "eve-ning", "by"); downward arrows indicate "BREATHE" (e.g., above "you could", "you could", "and", "by"); and circular arrows indicate "REPRISE" (e.g., above "ring-in'", "light."). Measure numbers 1 through 8 are placed above the vocal line. The piano accompaniment consists of chords and moving lines in both hands.

|                                                                                     |                                                                                     |                                                                                       |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| HOLD                                                                                | BREATHE                                                                             | REPRISE                                                                               |
|  |  |  |